

Hosting Connection Information Request Form

We at Newveau wish to provide our clients with quality services. We try to assure that any account information you provide is kept private. Upon completion of your projects we will discard any collected account information we may hold. Upon your request we can provide you with copies of your collected account information at the completion of your project.

Why Do We Need This Information?

We require the following information in order to post / release your final project to the web. If no changes need to be made to areas such as DNS or Domain Registrar, then this information is not required to be provided.

Client Name:

Web Hosting

The online storage services used to provide your website to the internet

Hosting Company Name:

FTP Connection URL:

www.domain.com, 192.168.1.1

Login Name:

Password:

Domain Registrar

The service used to reserve a unique web address for your web site

Registrar Company Name:

Domain Company URL:

Login Name:

Password:

Domain Name Services

The service that translates domain names into IP routing addresses

DNS Company Name:

DNS Company URL:

Login Name:

Password: